

Marianas Trench, Alive Again

I felt it turn to come and go don't worry no one ever knows
I don't know why it just won't die
It breaks me in to stay alive
I know it hurt a lot like you
C'mon I know that you felt it too
It hurts the same and that's ok
I never liked him anyway
I know
It seems so long since I've been gone
I got so used to just hanging on
I feel so wrong
I don't belong
I got so used to just hanging on
I'm used to starving out instead
It's easier than fakign it
Sometimes it hurts but That's no worsethan all those times
I guess it works
I know they walked away with a piece of me
The more I bruise from laying low
I walk around liek I'm alive again
But I know it's just not the same
Shut up
I'm sorry I broke it all
I don't know why it just won't die
And I'm fading
