Marianne Faithfull, Falling Back (feat. Anna Calvi)

How many times have I found myself in this place
Without reasons
Or excuses
So many time took a round and round in the space
Looking for someone
Looking for something
And you
Looking for you
Looking for you

Falling back to myself again
Falling back to the place I've lost
Falling back into myself again
And into to the place I've lost

And thanks God
I found my heart
Without reason
Or excuses
Not many hearts can feel
And fill the place
To many hearts never see enough space

Looking for someone
Looking for something
And you
Looking for someone
Looking for something
And you
Looking for you
Looking for you
