

Marianne Faithfull, My Friends Have

My friends have many features
Many reasons, I can believe them
My friends have many things that
I am needing, to keep me singing

Yeah, you're a friend of mine
You're a friend of mine
Yeah, you're a friend of mine
You're a friend of mine

My friends have many mountains,
Many mountains that I can breathe in
My friends have many houses,
Many caves I can choose to live in

Yeah, you're a friend of mine
I love these friends of mine
Yeah, you're a friend for life
I love these friends of mine

My friends have many pathways,
Many roads that I can choose to take
My friends have many highways,
Where I can find my way back home again

Yeah, you're a friend of mine
I love these friends of mine
Yeah, you're a friend for life
I love these friends of mine

My friends have always been there,
To help me shape my crooked features
My friends have picked me up again,
And pushed my enemies out of the picture

Yeah, you're a friend of mine
You're a friend of mine
Yeah, you're a friend of mine
You're a friend for life

I love these friends of mine
I love these friends of mine
You're a friend of mine
I love these friends of mine
