Marianne Faithfull, When I Find My Life

Oh, I will free the bird in me Oh, when I find my life. What I always knew could be Oh, when I find my life. I will see the truth in me Oh, when I find my life. Oh, when I find my life.

I will let go the pain Oh, when I find my life. I will reach beyond the strain Oh, when I find my life. Fear of lost and fear of pain Oh, when I find my life. Oh, when I find my life.

I remember all the games of shame And all the lies you told me.

I have worked so hard to learn And flunked so far in my attempts to let it go by, dear.

And it's so easy I just opened my eyes. And it's so hard To let go.

Oh, I will free the bird in me Oh, when I find my life. I will we what I wanna be Oh, when I find my life. I am here and I am free. Oh, when I find my life.

Oh, when I find my life. Oh, when I find my life. Oh, when I find my life.
