Hey, will it be a good day
That we finally sit and talk to figure out what's bothering us?
Hey, I guess you're not okay
Is there something I could do to make you feel a bit alright?

We're different, so different
Think we lost the spark in us
You're different, not the same
Let me bring us back

Loving someone is easier
Put my trust in strangers
'Cause, 'cause
When I fall so far, I can't always hide
Loving someone is easier
But when my heart's in danger
'Cause I can't hide from myself

Hey, you know how I love your smile
Lately, I've been missing it like the stars miss the sun
Hey, it's time for us to try again
And focus on the things that always meant the most to us, oh

We're different, so different
Think we lost the spark in us
You're different, not the same
I will bring us back

Loving someone is easier
Put my trust in strangers
'Cause, 'cause
When I fall so far, I can't always hide
Loving someone is easier
But when my heart's in danger
'Cause I can't hide from myself

Loving someone is easier
Oh
Oh
But when my heart's in danger
Mm, oh

Loving someone is easier
But when my heart's in danger
'Cause I can't hide from myself
