

Marika, Just call

But they cast a spell on me and my thoughts can't get through to reach you, like they used to do.
Minutes drag on, seem like hours
Much too long.
I'll do anything just to hear you
Just call me
And all my fears
Will disappear
These are so many things I could do right now
And there's nothing I actually can do
I'm trying in vain not to think about you
Minutes drag on seem like hours
Much too long...
