Marillion, Separated Out

(Hogarth/Kelly/Mosley/Rothery/Trewavas)

We didn't lie to you, folks. We told you we had living, breathing, monstrosities. You'll laugh at them

Can you feel my skin Can you feel my bones Can you put my spine in plaster and take me home

So unpleasant inside and out So unpleasant inside and out If you like I'll tell you about it You wouldn't want to know

My heads full of water
Tears I never cried
Could you hold me under the shower
In the cold outside

So unsteady inside and out So unsteady inside and out If you like I'll tell you about it You wouldn't want to be

Separated out Separated out Separated out

I need medical attention Where's my memory gone Everything I told you - including this, I already forgot

Separated out From the living stream The thing that couldn't lie straight Straight in the machine

So unstable inside and out Don't know how much longer I'll take it If you like I'll sell you a ticket Or you can get in for free

Am I enough of a freak To be worth paying to see Am I enough of a freak To be worth paying to see

And now, folks, if you'll just step this way, you are about to witness the most amazing, the most ast

Can you feel my skin
Can you feel my bones
Can you put my spine in plaster and take me home
Can you kiss my face
Let me know it's there
Can you give it shape
Can you kinda care

Am I enough of a freak To be worth paying to see Enough of a freak To be worth paying to see

Enough Enough They're pointing and laughing They're pointing and laughing at me

"We accept her-one of us-gooble, gobble-we accept her-one of us-gooble, gobble..." "You, dirty, slimy...FREAKS!...FREAKS!...FREAKS!...Get out of here!" "Get out! You heard her! Get out!"
