Marilyn Manson, Count To 6 & Die

She's got her eyes open wide She's got the dirt and spit of the world Her mouth on the metal The lips of a scared little girl

I've got an angel in the lobby He's waiting to put me in line I won't ask forgiveness My faith has gone dry

She's got her christian prescriptures And death has crawled in her ear

Like elevator music of songs That she shouldn't hear

And it spins around 1...2...3 And we all lay down 4...5...6 Some do it fast Some do it better in smaller amounts

And it spins around 1...2...3
And we all lay down 4...5...6
Some do it fast
Some do it better in smaller amounts
