

Marilyn Manson, Evidence

you have eyes that lead me on and a body that shows me death your lips look like they were made for something else but they just suck my breath
I want your pain
to taste why you're ashamed and I know you're not just what you say to me and I'm not the only moment you're made of

You're so sudden and sweet all legs, knuckle, knees
Head's blown clean off your mouth's paid off Fuck me 'til we know it's unsafe and we'll paint
over the evidence

I want you wanting me
I want what I see in your eyes so give me something to be scared of don't give me something to satisfy

You're so sudden and sweet all legs, knuckle, knees Head's blown clean off your mouth's paid off
Fuck me 'til we know it's unsafe and we'll paint
over the evidence

to taste why you're ashamed and I know you're not just what you say to me and I'm not the only moment you're made of

You're so sudden and sweet all legs, knuckle, knees
Head's blown clean off your mouth's paid off
Fuck me 'til we know it's unsafe and we'll paint
over the evidence

Head's blown clean off your mouth's paid off
