

Marilyn Manson, Slo-Mo-Tion

You've got your hell's teeth
Smiling at you
It keeps your brain safe,
As it all eats at your face
And don't worry,
We'll 'blur it out' and no one ever will know,

No, oh oh oh

This is my beautiful show
And everything is shot in slo-motion
This is my beautiful show
And everything is shot in slo-motion

Pump in the laughter
Of dead-audience applause
And teenage rape candidates
I think we got ourselves a "real hit"
Don't we wish that we had something more than
Hate amber panic and panic,
Morbid panic
Hate and morbid panic

This is my beautiful show
And everything is shot in slo-motion
This is my beautiful show
And everything is shot in slo-motion

I'm the host with Vaseline
I hide behind bulletproof glass
And I can feel your tits
With my brand new camera
Equipped with a flash
Fast-food-nude
I hate you all
But somehow you find me?
Incredibly charming

This is my beautiful show
And everything is shot in slo-motion
Incredibly charming
This is my beautiful show
And everything is shot in slo-motion
