

Mario Joy, Follow Your Dreams

I tell you life is a story
A story you have to write it by yourself
Loosing or winning don't matter
You must keep on fighting till the end

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine

I tell you never stop dreaming
Fight for your dreams no matter what they say
You have your own special way
You must keep on fighting till the end

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine

Remember all your sunny days, happy days
When you're feeling down
Remember all your sunny days
Don't give up stand up and fight

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine

Follow your dreams
No matter what
It's time for you
To shine
