

Mario, What Is It Gonna Be

Baby, baby

I think Prince might have said it best
When he said the beautiful ones - they hurt you every time
She's the reason for all my stress
And yet she's the only one that can truly ease my mind
If I think that we could be alright
With the way the we just chill
How she touch me and how she kiss you
If it wasn't for her other guys
I can't stand to think that he's getting the same loving that I get

So tell me what is it going to be?

Make the decision
There's just one rule
Tell him that you want me
I know what I want
Girl I want you
What is it going to be?

I can't get enough
Make your mind up
Let me know what you want
Not complaining
Ok?
I am gonna be your man
But he's in the way
So I can't understand

If I think that we could be alright

With the way the we just chill
How she touch me and how she kiss me
If it wasn't for her other guys
I can't stand to think that he's getting the same loving that I get

So tell me what is it going to be?

Make the decision
There's just one rule
Tell him that you want me
I know what I want
Girl I want you
What is it going to be?

And it's hard to see you this happy
Its' probably 'cause you just
And that's so Unfair to me
Only if you could get rid of him we could be happy
Baby let me know

What's it going to be?
Make the decision
There's just one rule
Tell him that you want me
I know what I want
Girl I want you
What is it going to be?

Baby, baby, baby
