

Mario Winans, My Love Will Always Last

How could you believe in me, when I don't know myself.
Why should you even deal with me, when my mind's on (to) someone else.

Oh why tell me are you loving me,
can't you see she's the one for me.

How could she have the hold on me
'cause of things done in my past
Why can't she have faith and see,
That my love will always last.

Oh why tell me does she live(?) in me
Can't she see she's the one for me
