

Marion, Comeback

Stop, so what have you done
Stuck at the same point
All you do is sulk
Stop, what is it you see
It's probably nothing
In common with me
It's not, not being fair
To pull up and bring down
On every trend
But you've not, you've not been there
All the time I've called out
I've looked everywhere
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back for more
If you're coming back
When you're coming back
Wake me up
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
'cos I can't remember you here
Start do it and more
You've folded enough times
You're here to walk off
Start move your luck's in
I can here it, I'm seeing one thing
I'm not, and I've not been fair
To grind down and find out
All that you were
But you've not, you've not been there
All the times I've called out
I've looked elsewhere
If you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back for more
When you're coming back
If you're coming back
Wake me up
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
'cos I can't remember you here
well I tried to get inside here
As she gazed up at the sun
Said she knows of an alternative way
With our miles stretched out behind her
Now she's looking at me
Then she blew all my ideals away
Stop, you're thinking too much
And not doing enough
Your head is too full
Your making me uneasy
'cos I have to think
Stirring it up
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back for more
When you're coming back
If you're coming back
Wake me up
When you're coming back

When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
Wake me up
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
When you're coming back
'cos I can't remember you here
Were you ever here
Were you ever here
Were you ever here at all
Were you ever here
Were you ever here
Maybe never
Were you ever here
Were you ever here
Were you ever here
Were you ever here
Here