

Marius Bear, Boys Do Cry (Szwajcaria - Eurowizja)

In my room lives a boy who could be blue
And you might never know, oh, oh
You think he's cavalier
He would shed more than a crocodile tear
If you'd go, oh oh

Hearts they get broken
God only knows why
And sometimes aeroplanes
Fall down from the sky
And mountains they crumble
And rivers they run dry
And oh
Boys do cry

When night falls and the moon is all we see
Don't fear the wolf that lives in me, oh, oh
You think he's tough enough
He would cry love till the sun comes up
If you go, oh

Hearts they get broken, God only knows why
And sometimes aeroplanes
Fall down from the sky
And mountains they crumble
And rivers they run dry
And oh
Boys do cry
Boys do cry
And how they cry

Mountains they crumble
And rivers they run dry
And oh
Boys do cry
