

Mark Medlock, Sad Sad Story

Love has many colors,
And the passion rules the game
You and me together
Will never be the same
All I ever wanted
Is to fly on wings of love
Just you and me together
Enough is not enough
All the night my heart just calls your name
Baby will I see your smile again
If you find another sad sad story in your heart
If you ever had a love like this, don't tear apart
If you're lonely
I'm the only
One for you baby
If you find another sad sad story in your heart
If my lonely heart could speak I'll never try a start
If you're lonely
I'm the only
One for you baby
Love is like a river
Sometimes like a violin
You and me together
We are playing this all game
You are kiss from heaven
And everything will turn I find
You and me together
Just like the first time
Feeling are the hardest words to say
Oh I'm feeling stronger everyday
