

Mark Medlock, Wonderful Girl

Mark:

I told you told you I wanna hold you if you go away.

Cause when the night is gone and I'm going home, baby oh what can I say?

I told you told you I'm too old to play a silly game with you.

Cause I'm a midnight talker and a morning walker, baby oh what can I do? Baby oh what can I do?

Chorus:

You're a wonderful girl, you're a wonderful girl.

With that sunshine in your eyes you make my world.

You're a wonderful girl, you're a wonderful girl.

Everybody needs a little love to share.

Dieter:

I told you told you I will hold you if you need my love.

But I'm a Casanova over and over, baby I can't get enough.

Oh I told you told you I don't know you, it's good to have you by my side.

But I'm a womanizer, I'm a midnight fighter, baby stay with me tonight.

Oh baby stay with me tonight

Chorus

You're a wonderful girl, you're a wonderful girl.

With that sunshine in your eyes you make my world.

You're a wonderful girl, you're a wonderful girl.

Everybody needs a little love to share.

Oh don't you know you're wonderful, baby please, Oooh I don't wanna lose you now.

Chorus

You're a wonderful girl, you're a wonderful girl.

With that sunshine in your eyes you make my world.

You're a wonderful girl, you're a wonderful girl.

Everybody needs a little love to share.
