

Mark Schultz, Now That You've Come Into My Life

Now That You've Come Into My Life
(Mark Schulz)

Now that You've come in
Now that You've come into my life
All that was faded
All that was faded is like a heartbeat
That's been restored
Like a faith that has been reborn

In the end
In the end

(Chorus)
Yeah, we were under the same moon
We were under the same sky
We were searching for something
But I just didn't realize
That all that I needed
All that I needed all this time
You're just what I wanted
Now that You've come into my life

Now that you've come in
Now that you've come into my life
All that was broken
All that was broken is like the way it was meant to be
Like a feeling, I've been set free
In the end
In the end

(Chorus)

Not afraid
Anymore
Anymore
Not afraid
