

Mark Schultz, When Mountains Fall

You stand on the edge,
You've followed the call.
No turning back, you are risking it all.
He whispers your name
In a moment of truth
The rocks fall around you,
The ground starts to move.
You step out on faith
It's all that you know
You jump into darkness and hold onto hope.
When mountains fall,
When rivers rise,
Security crumbles before your eyes.
One thing you know,
In faith you'll find
Something to stand on
Or you will be taught to fly
So dream your dreams
And live your life
Knowing there's more than to merely survive
Don't give up, don't give in
Fight through the rain and lean into the wind
Til you come to the edge of all that you know
Run right through the dark knowing you're not alone
When mountains fall
When rivers rise
Security crumbles before your eyes.
One thing you know,
In faith you'll find
Something to stand on or you will be taught to fly.
When you walk through the fire
It will not consume you
Though the water will rise
It won't overtake you
Though the mountains will fall
Oh, still I am with you
I've called you by name
And I will not leave you
I'm learning to trust you, I'm learning to fly
I'm learning to trust you, I'm learning to fly
