One love One love I believe in love

Why I don't know why I let you go I let you take the morning train Leave me alone My broken heart Tell me why

I don't know why I let you go Can't stop You fill my heart again Kissing your lips Whispering love I love you

One love Is still in my mind One love And it's burning inside One love I believe in love Loving you Loving you One love Is still in my mind One love And it's burning inside One love I believe in love Loving you Loving you

Why I don't know why After so long And you're so far away from me

And all around There's only dark Where are you

After so long Feel deep inside Ohh stay together Was so good

Baby c'mon I just wanna say I love you

One love Is still in my mind One love And it's burning inside One love I believe in love Loving you Loving you One love Is still in my mind One love And it's burning inside One love I believe in love Loving you Loving you
