

Marta Krupa, Up All Night

I think I've had enough
I'm not that type
To make you fall in love
Forget it

If you wanna have a moment
I'll keep you by my side
Not just any kind of woman
Who lets you stay all night
Who lets you stay all night

One touch
Two bodies
Too much for me to understand
We are more than friends
Is that ok if i run away
I'm sorry

I think I've had enough
I'm not that type
To make you fall in love
Forget it

If you wanna have a moment
I'll keep you by my side
Not just any kind of woman
Who lets you stay all night
Who lets you stay all night

Every word
Promise you're not playing
Nothing gonna change me
Cause I'm the one

Every word
Promise you're not playing
Nothing gonna change me
Cause I'm the one

You need to deal with that
You need to deal with that

If you wanna have a moment
I'll keep you by my side
Not just any kind of woman
Who lets you stay all night
Who lets you stay all night

If you wanna have a moment
I'll keep you by my side
Not just any kind of woman
Who lets you stay all night
Who lets you stay all night

Who lets you stay all night
