

Marti Pellow, All I Ever Wanted

I don't trust you
You've let me down before
So why must you choose
To still ignore
My tears and my words
Are not being heard
And I don't love you anymore
I don't want you
You've heard it all before
And it won't stop you
From being so unsure
It's all I ever wanted
To be in love with you
It's all I ever needed
To keep it true
To be in love with you
To be in love
It's all I ever wanted
And I don't trust you
It's all up hill this time
Can I ask you
Where did you draw that line?
My head's full of lies
So packed with disguise
I don't trust you anymore
I don't want you
You've heard it all before
But it want stop you
From being so unsure
It's all I ever wanted
To be in love with you
It's all I ever needed
To keep it true
To be in love with you
To be in love
It's all I ever wanted
Love was built upon a rock
That sank into the sea
It could never stop you
From wanting me (ooh me)
Love was there in every beat
That echoed in my heart
It could never stop you
From calling me
Calling me
An I don't trust you
Ooh
To be in love with you
To be in love with you
To be in love
To be in love with you
To be in love
