

Martika, A Magical Place (Duet With Christopher

a magical place

martika:

you slay me

you bring me hope in a world full of fear

and you get me off to start

that never stops

like wild horses on a windy day i feel you now

and you're blowing thru me like a melody within my heart, so magical christopher max:

lord help me

i've found a one way ticket to ecstasy

i can't turn it down when all that's left behind me is a pool of tears

don't let me drown

i'll never find another who can take me there where my heart can feel, so magical

chorus:

over the sun, beyond the moon

where all desire lies

thru time & space

a magical place

i've found within your eyes

both:

don't tell me

i know what you're thinking & it's all

o.k. with me

'cause there's nowhere deeper i could ever feel

i'd wanna be

with body, mind & soul

i give myself to you

won'tcha set me free? so magical

both:

pretty soon someday, one day for always

we're gonna find, we're gonna find out that one day is today and we've never wasted our time with love

chorus

thru time & space

i've found within you
