Martin Englert, Boldly Whisper

I'm not going down without a fight wanna throw myself against you its this boldly whisper ring your ...name

My mind, free of everything, baby except how much I want to throw myself against you

Baby, unravel me
Watch me come undone
except how much I want to
throw myself against you

Unravel me, Throw myself against you x2 Unravel me, watch me come undone
Throw myself against you...

Die deeply, baby!
