

Martin Garrix, Told You So - feat. Jex

Something in my body
Something that's in my soul
Tells me you're somebody
Someone I need to know
No, I can't leave here sorry
If I just let this go
Don't wanna hear my heart say
"I told you so" (I told you so)

All day, all night
Been looking all my life
Trying to find something new
Still lost, but I, I find my way tonight
And I know it's because of you

Eyes are on me
I can feel the fire
Not like anything that I've ever known
Might be the one and only chance
I get with you
And I'll regret it if I take it too slow

Something in my body
Something that's in my soul
Tells me you're somebody
Someone I need to know
No, I can't leave here sorry
If I just let this go
Don't wanna hear my heart say
"I told you so" (I told you so)

Don't wanna hear my heart say
"I told you so"

Could run, could hide
But I won't sleep tonight
Wondering what did I lose (Oh-oh)
I can't deny
No, when that feelings right
I bet you feel the way I do

Oh, your eyes are on me
I can feel the fire
Not like anything that I've ever known
Might be the one and only chance
I get with you
And I'll regret it if I take it too slow

Something in my body
Something that's in my soul
Tells me you're somebody
Someone I need to know
No, I can't leave here sorry
If I just let this go
Don't wanna hear my heart say
"I told you so" (I told you so)

Don't wanna hear my heart say
"I told you so"

Most have fallen
I'm here stalling
This is what it feels like
Most have fallen down

And you know I won't fall

I'm feeling
Something in my body
Something that's in my soul
Tells me you're somebody
Someone I need to know
No, I can't leave here sorry
If I just let this go
Don't wanna hear my heart say
"I told you so" (I told you so)

(I told you so)
I told you
I, I, I told you so
I told you
I, I, I told you so
I told you
I, I, I told you so
Don't wanna hear my heart say
"I told you so"
