

Martin Garrix, Waiting For Tomorrow

Remember, we're staring up to those peaks on the horizon
I promise I'd never stop
In your name I'd climb them
There's nothing I've wanted more
The only one I've been waiting for
So hold your breath
And close your eyes
The end is unknown, but still we rise

Coming down to the life
Through the night
Just waiting for tomorrow
Almost there, almost time
All my life just waiting
It's only more day
It's only one more day
It's only one more day
It's only one more

waiting for tomorrow

Coming down, to the light
Through the night
Just waiting for tomorrow
Almost there, almost time
All my life just waiting for tomorrow
