

Martin Jondo, Hurtful Game

Oh please Lord never let me fall in love again
Cause this is such, such a hurtful game
Lord I cant breathe and I cant smile
Lord my emotions getting wicked and wild
Im losing myself Im losing my soul
Feeling this girl taking over control
Im running away Lord I cant stay
Cant look in her face just one more day
The pain I feel the tears I cry
Lord Im in love and I feel like I die
Oh please Lord never let me fall in love again
cause this is such, such a hurtful game
Im sending mean thoughts and then Im crying oh Lord
What have I done to feel hate instead of love Im losing my stand and now it comes to an end cause I cant look at them walking down hand in hand Im turning away and Im trying to pray
I wanna overcome my bitterness and bless their sweet Way so give me the strength and let me open my hand cause lifes water flowing from the source to the end
Oh please Lord never let me fall in love again
cause this is such, such a hurtful game
So I dont wanna play no games no more, no more
So I dont wanna play no games no more, no more
