

Martin Nievera, Somewhere In Time

Somewhere in time,
we'll share
one love,
one life.

And with each gentile touch
i know
this much,
its true.

And when we kiss,
i see forever,
and in your arms,
im lost, you find me again.

No words, no writes,
describe this pain inside,
no matter how hard i tried,
i die inside,
to let you go,

To say goodbye
my heart breaks forever somewhere in time, i know we'll meet again

You're in my heart
You're in my soul
and if you go away from me i cant let go.

Until begin,
i know,
we'll meet again
Somewhere in time.
