

Marty Robbins, Holding On To You

I shouldn't think about you and forget we ever met
I know these are the things that I should do
I never was too smart, I guess,
At least it seems that way
Inside me there's a memory
That keeps holding on to you

Just when I think I've crossed that bridge
That's when you cross my mind
That little memory's fightin' me
It's with me all the time
I guess it takes a little more
Of what I'm going through
Cause now I feel this memory
And it's holdin' on to you

Holdin' on to memories
Ain't the smartest way I know
I still have these memories
And they won't let me go
I guess it takes a little more
Of what I'm going through
Cause now I feel this memory
And it's holdin' on to you

Holdin' on to memories
Ain't the smartest way I know
I still have these memories
And they won't let me go
I guess it takes a little more
Of what I'm going through
Cause now I feel this memory
And it's holdin' on to you

Now I feel this memory
And it's holdin' on to you
