

Marty Robbins, I'll Go To Pieces

Once we started out so right
Now, why end it all tonight
Time will give our love a chance to heal
And find it's way
Ah, please, give us just one more try
Why rush to this last goodbye
Love, our love can grow and we can know
A better way, please stay

'Cause I'll go to pieces if you ever say goodbye
I'll go to pieces and I'll wanna die
And when I'm losin' everything I ever had to lose
I'll go to pieces if you say we're through
Say I'm not losin' you

Go to pieces if you ever say goodbye
I'll go to pieces and I'll wanna die
And when I'm losin' everything I ever had to lose
I'll go to pieces if you say we're through
Say I'm not losin' you
