

Marty Robbins, Love Is A Hurting Game

Hung around too long
Why, I can't explain
Should be glad you're gone
Love's a hurting game

Don't know why it happened
Who's to blame
Only know I'm cryin'
Love's a hurting game

If I seem bitter
Please don't condemn
I keep remembering
What might have been

Don't know why it happened
Or who's to blame
Only know I'm cryin'
Love's a hurting game

Just let the teardrops
Fall where they may
What does it matter
Anyway

Don't know why it happened
Or who's to blame
Only know I'm cryin'
Love's a hurting game
