Marty Robbins, Misery In My Soul

I got a misery in my soul
I've got a heartache that won't let go
I got a memory of you in my mind

I got a feelin' deep inside
Lots a-nights I've laid and cried
I got a memory of you in my mind

Well these heartaches are hurtin' me yet
They won't let me forget
The love I have for you deep inside
(Deep inside)

It gets stronger all a-the time
I can't get you outta my mind
The love I have for you is hard to hide

I don't like being free at all
I like it better with a chain and ball
There ain't nothin' goin' right at all
Since you've gone

You were the master and I the slave
I always took what it was you gave
There ain't nothin' gonna be the same
Since you've gone

I got a misery in my soul
I've got a heartache that won't let go
I got a memory of you in my mind

I got a feelin' deep inside
Lots a-nights I've laid and cried
I got a memory of you in my mind
