

Marty Robbins, Possession Is Nine Tenths Of The

You love him I know but I won't let you go I just won't step out of the way
Cause you're married to me and I won't set you free
Possession is nine tenths of the law so they say
I'll keep you as long as I possibly can you were mine before he came our way
I refuse you are mine and I won't step aside
Possession is nine tenths of the law so they say
Forgive me for being so selfish but for me there is no other way
I just want to hold on to what's rightfully mine
Possession is nine tenths of the law so they say
[ steel ]
Forgive me for being so selfish...
