

Marty Robbins, Tie Your Dreams To Mine

Tie your dreams to mine
See how high we can climb
Together, we can rise above it all
One step at a time
Leave the world behind
If you'll tie your dreams to mine

If we spend our lives tryin' to make it on our own
Our dreams are bound to come undone
When storm clouds gather, you need someone to lean on
Two hearts are better than one

Tie your dreams to mine
See how high we can climb
Together, we can rise above it all
One step at a time
Leave the world behind
If you'll tie your dreams to mine

It's a crazy world and it would be so easy
For love to get scattered in the wind
But we'll stand tall and if our dreams should fall
Side by side, we'll build them back again

Tie your dreams to mine
See how high we can climb
Together, we can rise above it all
One step at a time
Leave the world behind
If you'll tie your dreams to mine

Tie your dreams to mine
See how high we can climb
Together, we can rise above it all
One step at a time
Leave the world behind
If you'll tie your dreams to mine

Tie your dreams to mine
See how high we can climb
Together, we can rise above it all
One step at a time
Leave the world behind
If you'll tie your dreams to mine
