

Marty Robbins, Walking Piece of Heaven (1987)

What's that around your head, is it a halo?
And what's that on your shoulders, is it wings?
You must be a walkin' piece of heaven
or is it love that makes me see these things.

Around you is a light that keeps on glowin'.
When you speak do I hear angels sing?
You must be a walkin' piece of heaven
or is it love that makes me see these things.

When we met you gave me strength to face the world,

I believe you're special, you're no ordinary girl.

Am I seein' light or am I dreaming?
Do I hear the rush of angels wings?
You must be a walkin' piece of heaven
or is it love that makes me see these things.

Or is it love that makes me see these things
