The clock is tick ticking away She got a new pair of shades that she bought when she went shopping Only 27 hours away From skipping rope on a star, she's drinking gin with janis joplin

I wanna go to the sun (somebody take me there)
That's where the living is fun (and I won't get no evil stares)
I wanna go to the sun (somebody take me there)

She stole a class cutting pass today And she can fake a teacher's signature like nobody can I bet you'll never guess what she's gonna say That I'm the captain of the rocket and you're the 2nd in command
