

Marvelous 3, Sugarbuzz

Well I started this story in the middle of the page
I remebered the lines and forgot my age
When somebody said my attitude was snotty
That's when you called and said get out tonight
Catch a late night movie on a late night flight
I'll be getting real drunk and making fun of everybody
Ain't nobody gonna get me down
Something must've gone around
Hey

You can stick that sign up your ass
The one that says it won't last
My sugarbuzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife
I'll have the time of my life
My sugarbuzz is growing higher and higher everyday

Oh well I went to a party last Saturday night
You know, I think I got laid then I got in a fight
I don't remember that much, but I think I liked it
I saw some band called Roses 'n Sockey An' they brought back the rock and the singer was cocky
Two years later I'm sure they'll forget about it
Ain't nobody gonna get me down
Something must've come around Yeah

You can stick that sign up your ass
The one that says it won't last
My sugarbuzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife
I'll have the time of my life
My sugarbuzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Yeah, Yeah, Yeah
You can stick that sign up your ass
The one that says it won't last
My sugarbuzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife
I'll have the time of my life
my sugarbuzz is growing higher and higher
