

Marvin Gaye, (I Love You) For Sentimental Reasons

I love you for sentimental reasons I love you for sentimental reasons I hope that you do believe in me and say that will never part

I think of you every morning I dream of you every night my darling where ever lonely when ever where in sight

I love you , I love you repeat about four times and I think of you every (every 6x) morning and I dream of you (every 5x) my darling you're never lonely when ever you're in sight

I love you I love you (repeat 5x0's)
then finish

im not sure if he is singing the Sam Cooke version or the Nat King Cole version both the same lyrics but song in different styles.
