

Marvin Gaye, Joy

Oh

Hey, hey, hey

There is a joy in a sweet word that's been spoken

And the joy in a dream that's come true

There's a joy that I get when I'm watching you baby, hey

And the joy that I get watching the skies of blue

And then there's a joy,

Oh my darling, of a crying baby

And the joy of a child that's born to you

Then there's a joy of a beautiful lady and the joy of the morning dew

It's something like the joy of loving you baby

Joy of dancin' too

It's something like the joy of lovin' you baby, yeah

Joy of being with you

Oh my darling, I'll overcome the darkest nights

Just to see your love's allright

I've got a love to give

You know I love to live

There's something 'bout the joy of lovin' you baby [Repeat]

Joy, Joy...
