

Marvin Gaye, Me And My Lonely Room

me and my lonely room snapping my fingers ,paceing the floor i sulk in my lonely room as i lay my weary head down then in comes youre vison youre viosn once again i cry in my pillow baby paceing the floor no were to go as i stroll through the streets dragging my weary head down then in comes you're vison youre vision once again

then he goes boo hoo and then the lyrics repeat and fade
