

Mary J. Blige, Willing & Waiting

[Intro] willing and waiting but it's all up to you [Verse] the very first, time i layed my eyes on you i knew you were the one loving, can't compare to all the times that we both had some fun [Hook] sometimes i wanna cry cause boy i realize i need you in my life don't think he understands i want him for my man i'm waiting for you [Chorus] willing and waiting so in love with you willing and waiting boy it's all on you willing and waiting boy i need the truth willing and waiting i'm so in love with you [Verse] everytime, boy i take one look at you i see the sunday shine when we're alone, never want the night to end cause you're the one i want [Hook]
[Chorus]
[Ad Libs] you better answer (2x)
[Hook]
[Chorus] til end
