

Mary Lou Lord, Someone Always Talks

Keep your secrets to yourself
Or they&#039;re not secrets anymore
Don&#039;t go tellin&#039; no one else
Or everyone will know the score

Hey yeah
Doesn&#039;t matter what they say to you
They could swear a vow of silence to your face
But someone always talks

Make your promises alone
Keep the blueprint in your mind
Don&#039;t discuss it on the phone
You never know who&#039;s on the line

Hey yeah
Let them call you Mr. Paranoid
It won&#039;t be you who gets destroyed by careless words
When someone always talks

Hey yeah
Don&#039;t you worry what they think of you
Cuz there is nothing that they&#039;d rather do
Than share your thoughts with anyone Who has the time
But someone always talks
Someone always talks
Someone always talks
