

Masha Qrella, Feels Like

The day is gone
5pm means night
I turn the TV on
And my room fills with light
Nothing to be done
There's nobody outside
I fight the darkness
Growin' inside
Feels like nothing could be drawn
Feels like something's goin' wrong
Feels like I am far from home
Feels like to be all alone
Another movie
I wouldn't mind to fall asleep
I can hear it's raining
It's still raining
Feels like nothing could be drawn
Feels like something's goin' wrong
Feels like I am far from home
Feels like to be all alone
