

Masked Wolf, Fallout (Bring Me The Horizon)

Cold sweats, pupils shrinking
Don't know what I was thinking
Just felt like I was sinking
This is the fallout
Biting off the hand that feeds me
Stare into the void, I'm screaming
Can't find my soul in the debris
This is the fallout

Lift the rubble and all you gon' is the ashes
Moment of silence as I spiral down, learn that crashes
Cautious, the Metamorph gon' get you
Wolf in sheep's closing, hope your eyes don't trick you
Ain't the first time like meetin' and greetin'
Turn into bleeding on the falls like the seasons
I take the lead, wait, wait, my head's spinning like the patches
There's poison in my blood, but it's feeling like an attachment
Roars out like lions, I'm fire-breathin' with dragons
Surrounding, but so high, there's a carpet and I'm Aladdin
I'm asking, can you imagine feeling behind the past?
And I lost my soul, I lost the hope
But carry, run that crush like a Pope do
Dry them in that water, lucky I got on them boat shoes
All I was was hopeful, the treasure nation ain't myself, I can't keep control
See, I'm screaming for some help, I just wanna let go

Cold sweats, pupils shrinking
Don't know what I was thinking
Just felt like I was sinking
This is the fallout
Biting off the hand that feeds me
Stare into the void, I'm screaming
Can't find my soul in the debris
This is the fallout

This is the fallout
This is the fallout

The garden of Adam and Eve, who gon' show the grieve?
You see the tree, but never think, "Who sowed the seed?"
My outcome depending on who gets outdone
Voices in my head that I can never outrun
Hm, don't ever push my buttons
You might see the other side quicker, Benjamin Button
Shark bait to 'em, hook 'em and gut 'em, seeing me plummet
I keep on runnin', but that black hoe keep on suckin', what?

You're disorder, I'm a lamb
Even when I'm sleeping I got one eye open
You wanna see what I am
Well, this is what I look like when the lights are broken

Cold sweats, pupils shrinking
Don't know what I was thinking
Just felt like I was sinking
This is the fallout
Biting off the hand that feeds me
Stare into the void, I'm screaming
Can't find my soul in the debris
This is the fallout

There's a darkness in me that will never let me go
This is the fallout
This is the fallout

This is the fallout
This is the fallout!

Cold sweats, pupils shrinking
Don't know what I was thinking
Just felt like I was sinking
This is the fallout
(Out, out, out, out, out, out)
