How many real niggas is locked away

Behind some bitch-ass nigga with a whole lot to say

Man fools is confused ain't no rules to this game

Niggas be telling the feds where a nigga lay his head

Giving them niggas code names

Cold game, but I can't even say shit about it

'Cause if I catch you slipping, dipping tripping I'm getting rowdy

Killer snitch fuck a bitch I throw 'em both in a ditch

Cause they can't stand to see a young nigga getting rich

I'm destined for fame

Oh bitch-ass niggaz putting salt in the game

Put a stain on your brain 'cause I shall remain

And I know longer dwells in the cocaine game

It's a shame the way the game has switched

And the police man trying to take my shit

I caught a nigga one day jumping out of a cop car

I ain't saying no names but this nigga's a rap star

Walking real fast then he dashed in my backyard

Buff ass nigga perpetrating to act hard

In the front seat with no cuffs on

I ask him bout the discussion he say the wrong thing I rush him

Dust him, 'cause I can't trust him

Plus he working with the boys we bring the noise so fuck 'em

I tuck him in the trunk, I ain't fuckin' with no punk

Nigga snitching nigga missing cause we twisting

And that's for all my real niggaz locked up

And you bitches that be snitching when a homie sock you up

Bitch fix your mouth and get your head right

Oh get your muthafuckin' ass out my muthafuckin' house tonight

Just like a bitch quick to call the police

And when he get out will he live, only time will tell

Task kicked the nigga door in now he talking
My little cousin Jimmy told me in jail he was a drag queen
Now he on probation drug dealer with a tape machine
Watch the bitch he got a camera
But when I catch the nigga I'ma slam him down with a hammer
