

Matchbook Romance, Promise

what would you say if i asked you not to go to forget everyone, forget everything and start over with me would you take my hand and never let me go promise me you'll never let me go and the stars aren't out tonight, but neither are we to look up at them why does hello feel like goodbye? these memories can't replace, these wishes i wished and these dreams i chased take this broken heart and make it right i feel like i've lost everything when you're gone left remembering what it's like to have you here with me i thought you should know, you're not making this easy i never thought i'd be the one to say please don't, well please don't leave me

i thought you should know,

you're not making this easy... (easy, easy, easy...) take my hand and never let me go,

take my hand and never let me go,
promise me... you'll never let go
you'll never let go
you'll never let go
you'll never let go
make this last forever

i thought you should know, you're not making this easy

i'll fall asleep tonight, cause that brings me closer to you
