

Matchbook Romance, Surrender and these are my sins these are my regrets i want to trade them in for some truth just let it go, let it go

don't waste your breath
save your tears for somebody who believes i can't help myself, let alone you
i give up

and these are my dreams these are my beliefs i wanna' trade them in for something real

i'm tired of making love to a memory
i give up
