Why don't you just go away
I can't seem to get my head straight
There's so much I need to say
It could take All Day

Yeah but what you got, I don't need it
I can't listen to all your reasons
Wake up, I don't feel it
I can't listen to all your reasons

You're bad mood just ties my hands
Turns my cartwheels into head stands
I've done everything I can
You get old, I have

Ever what you got, I don't need it
I can't listen to all your reasons
Wake up, I don't feel it

I can't listen to all your reasons

Why I
You don't help me none
So worn down, so torn up
Still in Love

Yeah but what you got, I don't need it
I can't listen to all your reasons
Wake up, I don't feel it
I can't listen to all your reasons

Woman, I don't need it
I can't listen to all your reasons
Wake up, I don't feel it
I can't listen to all your reasons
