

matchbox twenty, Busted

I forget when words were only words she knows the party makes me nervous in this stage we can't get hurt don't try to understand me we're too cool to be alone but, not too crazy to get busted I found out one life just ain't enough I need another soul to feed on I'm the flame I can't get burnt I'm wholly understated I found silence in this place an on and off again attraction I need such amazing grace heaven sweep me away

Love don't change, don't come around here don't wear my heart on your sleeve like a high school letter don't strain, cuz nothing ever comes from it and the people we've become, well they've never been the people who we are I strap on one horse and prayed for luck I dug another hole to bleed I know exactly how this works I need a new feel dirty I don't need you crowding up my space I just want to get inside you you can't believe the heart you save giving something away

Love don't change, don't come around here
like a high school letter
I dreamed that the world was crumbling down we sat on my back porch and watched it (background) Jesus is knocking on the door of your heart, eh?
I dreamed that the buildings all fell down
we sat on my back porch and watched it yeah well i dreamed that the world was crumbling down we sat on my back porch and watched in my head I heard the sound like fifteen strangers dancing but oh how I want you to know me oh how I want you to know me oh how I wish I was somebody else, baby oh how I wish you could own me

Love don't change, don't come around here
like a high school letter
Love don't change, don't come around here
like a high school letter
who we are, who we are
