

Matoma, Slow (feat. Noah Cyrus)

it's 3 o'clock in the morning no one can make me go home cause no one's waiting there for me and I just can't be alone your green eyes are a weapon shot a hole in my heart now I'm falling for the bad one and I'm seeing stars

I don't want to go slow
I don't want to go slow
every time you pull it backwards I'm just gonna falling faster cause I don't wanna go slow no one likes being honest but I'mma give you that so ask me how much I want you and I'll whisper back how many other girls you know say it all up front I'll take care of you cause now I fell for a bad one and it never lasts

so I don't want to go slow
I don't want to go slow
every time you pull it backwards
